Dogs not familiar with Paws 4 Play or our boarding services may experience:

___ Dramatic changes in food and/or level of activity may cause upset stomachs, diarrhea and/or colitis

___ Dogs not regularly socialized do not necessarily know correct manners when being introduced to another dog or dogs. These dogs are at higher risk of incidents, not limited to, bites, dog fights, fear aggression, object guarding and behavioral problems such as acting out

___ Dogs that come to Paws 4 Play for daycare may get dirty, a bath can be requested and scheduled

___ Excessively long nails can cause injury to dogs, humans and property. Toe nail trims can be done at a charge of $10.00

___ Although all dogs go through temperament testing prior to admission, sometimes a dog, known always as docile and sweet will suddenly become aggressive to another dog. It may come from a look, stealing a ball or maybe even a subtle provocation. Also some male dogs, although neutered, will suddenly become sexually active. In either of these cases any behavior deemed aggressive, not safe or inappropriate by Paws 4 Play may result in putting a dog in a brief "time out" away from other dogs to let them cool off. In rare instances it can result in dismissal from daycare services.

___ Keep in mind that similar to a children's daycare, dogs may come home with minor scrapes and scratches. Should your dog become injured or ill, Paws 4 Play will attempt to contact the owner right away. If unavailable, Paws 4 Play staff will use their own judgement whether to seek medical care. Our official veterinarian is Dr. Steve Pullon of Village Veterinary Care in Tequesta and Jupiter Pet Emergency & Specialty Center. Payments for all veterinary services are the responsibility of the owner. All charges will be invoiced.

With my signature I acknowledge, understand, agree and accept exclusive and sole responsibility for these and other risks and release Paws 4 Play or any subcontractor of Paws 4 Play of any and all liability, irrespective to cause. This release/waiver shall cover any injuries occurring within the life of this contract.

By signing below I authorize Paws 4 Play or any subcontractor to obtain medical records and/or accommodate treatment for my dog in the event of illness and/or injury. Such treatment shall be provided by the Veterinarian listed under veterinary care within this document, or the closest veterinarian/hospital if the aforementioned and designated veterinarian is not available.
